ELLIOTT DAVIS, LLC COMBINES OFFICES; EXPANDS CAPABILITIES IN CHARLESTON

CHARLESTON, S.C., Nov. 13, 2008 – In an economic period during which many businesses are decreasing their office footprint and reducing their employee base, Elliott Davis, LLC, one of the largest accounting and business advisory firms in the Southeast, has recently expanded its existing office space on 100 Calhoun Street in Charleston and recruited additional accountants and consultants.

Elliott Davis' new space on Calhoun Street is approximately 12,000 square feet, with room for 60 employees and an option on more space if needed.

The merger between McKnight Frampton CPAs, LLC, Schleeter Monsen & Debacker, LLP and Elliott Davis on Jan. 1, 2008, resulted in 50 employees operating under the name Elliott Davis, LLC from two offices – one on 100 Calhoun Street, Suite 300 and the other on 127 King Street.

According to CPA and Elliott Davis Shareholder Victor Kliossis, since the merger on January 1st, the Charleston office of Elliott Davis has grown by eight professional staff members, showing the acceptance of the merger and Elliott Davis by the business community in Charleston.

“We are excited about the opportunity to combine our offices into one location on Calhoun Street,” said Elliott Davis Shareholder and CPA Melonie Hammond-Trace. “This new location offers a more central location to all areas of Charleston, more convenient parking, and most importantly, allows easier access to all the knowledge and capabilities of our additional team members,” added Hammond-Trace.
