

Construction Group

Specialty groups with special know-how.

While we serve clients in a wide variety of industries, Elliott Davis delivers broader and deeper resources through groups that focus on specific industries. We leverage our knowledge, people and experience to deliver accounting, tax and business advisory services in ways only a specialized team can. These groups are led by shareholders who not only provide vision, but are involved in your day-to-day activities, challenges and solutions.

Running a construction company involves much more than just building structures to meet codes and specifications. There are endless business and financial details to manage. As your company grows, those details consume more and more of your valuable time. That's where Elliott Davis can help. Our Construction Group offers expert advice and support in a wide range of areas including financial, tax and business issues relevant to your company. So, while you concentrate on building your construction company, we can provide you with the necessary support and assistance to address any business, financial or tax issue you may encounter.

Count on our Construction Group know-how to assist you with the following services:

- Strategic planning
- Financial forecasting and budgeting
- Financial management reporting
- Financial statement preparation
- Job cost/accounting system design and implementation
- Assistance with bankers, bonding agents, sureties and other business advisors
- Employee benefit plan analysis, design and implementation (retirement and cafeteria plans)
- Business insurance analysis and RFP process guidance (Worker's Compensation, General Liability, Umbrella)
- Cost segregation studies
- Multi-state taxation
- Payroll taxes and insurance computations
- Purchase vs. lease analysis
- Stock transfer and change of ownership
- Management succession planning
- Business valuations
- Computer hardware, software, and networking needs analysis
- Foreign state registration and licensing

Your Elliott Davis dedicated team has in-depth knowledge gained from practical experience with a long list of construction clients, as well as firsthand involvement in the industry. We even have team members who have served as CFO's and controllers in construction businesses. We understand the challenges and opportunities you face, which helps us better assist you in running a successful operation.

Our Construction Group serves more than 125 clients in the Southeast, ranging from start-ups to multinationals. This clientele includes architects, engineers, and both general and specialty contractors (electrical, mechanical, roofing and others). So you work with a team that speaks your language and knows your industry inside and out.
